TECHNOLOGY AND MEDIA TRANSACTION PRACTICE.

WILLIAM D'ANGELO, III
Managing Director

Bill D'Angelo joined Janas in 2013 as a Managing Director and has added significantly to the Janas Technology and Media Transaction Practice. Bill combines his big firm legal background (Latham & Watkins and Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliff) with hands-on experience as a Venture Capital partner and turnaround manager. He provides Janas' clients with practical advice on how to become major forces in technology and media.

During the past year at Janas, Bill has worked on a series of client matters including:

- MMOG Game Development
- Children's Educational TV
- Advanced Electrical Grid Equipment
- Distance Learning Therapies for Autistic Children.

Bill's expertise is recognized by the University of Southern California, where he teaches Financial and Legal Principles of Venture Investing. He understands the complex ownership of intellectual property and how value metrics apply to various technologies both in the U.S. and Internationally.

Bill provides invaluable advice to his clients in preparing their enterprises to maximize the valuation to potential investors.

Bill holds a BA degree from Princeton University, an MA from University California Berkeley and a JD from USC's Gould School of Law. He is a member of the Board of Directors of a high tech company and a non-profit that promotes Japanese arts and culture. He is also FINRA registered, holding Series 62, 63 and 82 licenses.

Bill D'Angelo serves clients at Janas where he is a rainmaker for the firm and for his clients.

JCC ADVISORS, LLC is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory (FINRA) and offers securities licensing support for qualified candidates.
